WELCOME, ANNOUNCEMENTS, DEACON'S GREETING

PASSING OF THE PEACE

PASTORAL GREETING

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: For too long, science and faith have had a combustible relationship. But even churches evolve. In the UCC, we're not afraid of science and technology. In fact, we embrace it.

Many: We are curious about the world; the refractions of light that create a rainbow, the molecules in our bodies that keep us healthy, the magnetic core of our planet that keeps our rotation around the sun.

One: God's handiwork is present all around us, let us celebrate and marvel at the complexity of creation.

Many: Scientific exploration draws us closer to nature and to the fragility of human life, it opens limitless possibilities for creativity and leaves room for the work of the Spirit.

One: Open our eyes O Lord, to seeing and experiencing the world through a variety of lenses, so we may be open to your transformative presence among us.

CALL TO CONFESSION

People of faith serve the wider community in the form of scientists, doctors, educators, and engineers; together these scientific fields create soaring bridges, navigate intricate blood vessels, and discover new worlds in both the microscope and telescope. All too often we divorce these discoveries from our spiritual lives, seeing them as separate from one another- let us confess our short-sightedness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all creation- forgive us when we seek to compartmentalize human from divine. Help us to see and experience integrated lives that celebrate both the scientific and the spiritual. Allow us to pause in the awesome splendor of your son Jesus as he transcended what humanity thought was possible. Help us evolve as individuals and as a community of faith to be responsive to your work in the world.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

The God of the atom and of Adam sees and recognizes you. The God of Moses and mitochondria provides order to our lives. The one who sets light on its course and planets in their orbits is as close to us as a lover's hand within our own. This is a gift of forgiveness and grace that is beyond empirical measurement and yet as real as terrestrial gravity.

JOYS AND CONCERNS

PASTORAL PRAYER

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

CALL TO OFFERING

We are called to trust in God and to love our neighbor as ourselves. May our experience in worship today open us to greater understanding of what is possible through the church. May our offerings be transformed from temporal commodities into transformative mechanisms for ministry.

*DOXOLOGY

Tune: Old 100th

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Christ the Word in flesh born low;
Praise Holy Spirit evermore: One God, Triune, whom we adore. Amen.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Many today are hungering for an authentic spirituality that is intellectually honest and at home in a scientific era. May our offerings help to create a place that encourages spiritual growth and technological advancements. Bless these gifts and us that we might see and experience wider possibilities in the light of God's love. Amen.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

V. Labenske

First Congregational Church of Shrewsbury (FCCS) is a vibrant, inclusive and compassionate community of worship and mission.

We want our faith to transcend the things that separate us, to be tangible to endure tests of life and time and to be environmentally responsible, protecting God's creation. Led by the Holy Spirit, we look to Jesus Christ to guide us toward companionship, justice, and the inspiration to serve God and our community.
